2. It is not clear whether in the case of the members of the same Regiment & Corps who are not on active service the existing provisions in Arts 381 & 382 do not apply. But in paragraph 2 of G.O. ~~xxx~~ under reference these articles are considered as abrogated. This is a matter for orders.

3. In paragraph 1 of the order it is laid down that these rules are liable to reconsideration after the close of the present war.

4 The points for orders are :—

1) Whether Arts 381 & 382 should be abrogated or continued &

2) if ordered to be abrogated whether the new provisions be ~~xxxxx~~ inserted in their place &

3) if not, whether these provisions be put in as an appendix.

26/11/16

S. Rules 1, 2 & 3 make it clear that the new rules are intended for application in the case of persons other than those who are on active Service — There is therefore no difficulty in applying them to the men of the I. S. Regiment left behind. All rules are ~~but~~ liable to alterations and there is therefore no reason to consider the present rules as other than permanent till they are actually revised.

6 The corrections with M. S. R. may be as follows:—

Insert a new Article 380A. The grant of special injury, wound and family Pensions to Combatant and followers of the Nyasa Imperial Service Lancers Transport Corps ~~&c~~ is governed by the rule posted in Appendix K of L. and enlist the rules in a new appendix K of L.

7 In article 381 ~~Add~~ insert "local service" after "The" in line 2 and omit "and Transport Corps' in line 3.

8 In article 382 omit the entries relating to the Nyasa Imperial Service Lancers and the Transport Corps.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 2981, dated the 20th September 1915, from the Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops, forwarding for the consideration of Government a draft of the rules for the grant of special rates of wound, injury and family pensions to combatants and followers and families of the Mysore Imperial Service Lancers and Transport Corps.

Order No. G. 7923-5—Mily. 21-14-577, dated 18th December 1915.

The rules proposed by the Chief Commandant are approved with certain modifications and appended to this order. These rules are liable to reconsideration after the termination of the present war.

2. The rules will abrogate the provisions made for wound and injury pensions for non-commissioned ranks in Articles 381 and 382 of the Mysore Service Regulations so far as the Imperial Service Troops are concerned and will have effect from the 2nd November 1914.

3. The necessary addenda and corrigenda will accordingly be issued to the Mysore Service Regulations.
